Circular No. 05/2022

Dated: 14-03-2022

Sub: Annual Store Verification.

Annual physical verification of the stores for the financial year 2021-22 will be done by the outside professional firms engaged for this purpose.

The representatives of outside professional firm will conduct physical verification jointly with the verifying officers of the establishment. The name of the professional firm will be intimated in due course by Procurements and Contracts Department. The officer-in-charge of the respective store should render all possible assistance to the verifiers during verification work in co-ordination with Procurements & Contracts Department. Normal store transactions may be avoided as far as possible during the period of verification. Stock of all items shall be incorporated in verification sheet/ report. The verification sheet/ report will bear full name, signature and Designation of the custodian of store, i.e., Store Assistant, Officer-in-Charge of the store and the Verifying Officers with seal. The independent verifiers will be required to submit the original copy of working papers which will corroborate the data in final verification report, within 15th April 2022 without fail as per Audit requirement.

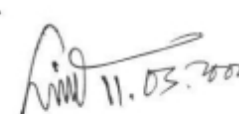

Period of physical verification may be reasonably assessed considering all items to be verified and attempts should be made to complete the verification within 31st March 2022. Verification should be done on the basis of ERP stock balance only.

The discrepancies found in course of verification, if any, must be set right by the verifying offices in terms of company's accounting procedures. In respect of shortage, store adjustment may be done by way of fixing the responsibility or write off, as the case may be and such proposals should be submitted to the controlling officer with explanatory notes.

In this regard a provision has been made in the ERP system for entry of physically found quantity in the system and it will be an integral part of Annual Store Verification Process. Independent verifiers shall submit the signed hard copies as well as soft copy of the report (in prescribed excel format) to the Controlling Officer which will be uploaded in the ERP system through the user id of the Store In charge. After upload, final report from the ERP system shall be available which will be signed by Store In-charge, Controlling Officer, & Independent verifiers.

Necessary instruction to the Store in-Charge & Independent verifiers should be given from Procurements & Contracts department for proper co-ordination and it must be ensured by the independent verifiers that the report given in the hard copies matches with the report available from ERP system.

Necessary guidelines and user manual for uploading the physical inventory quantity will be provided well in advance prior to physical verification and 1 day orientation program may also be organized by P&C Wing for Store In-charges in Coordination with IT Cell.
