Office Order No. : 1196

Dated : 20-04-2017

In order to achieve the mission of the Government to move towards a less cash economy to reduce generation and circulation of black money, a new section 269ST is inserted through Finance Act 2017 in the Income Tax Act, 1961 related to Mode of Undertaking Transactions. The section provides as follows:-

No person shall receive an amount of Two Lakh Rupees or more.

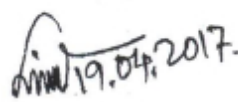

- a) in aggregate from a person in a day; or
- b) in respect of a single transaction; or
- c) in respect of transactions relating to one event or occasion from a person, otherwise than by an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or use of electronic clearing system through a bank account.

Another new section 271DA inserted in the Act to provide for levy of penalty on the receiver in contravention of the provision of the section 269ST, which is equal to the amount of such receipt.

In view of the above from 1st April 2017, entities like West Bengal State Electricity Distribution Company Limited are not permitted to receive in cash an amount of Rs.2,00,000 (Rupees Two Lakh) or more from any customers, any other person or entity; otherwise than by an Account Payee Cheque or Account Payee Bank Draft drawn in favour of the "Company"; or by use of any other electronic mode of payment.

Hence, collection of Rs. 2,00,000 (Rupees Two Lakh) or more in the form of cash from a person in a day or in a single transaction or transaction relating to a single event/occasion is hereby prohibited at the Customer Care Centers/Kiosks, Divisional Cash Desk and in HQ or through any other point of collection.

This order will have immediate effect.
