CIRCULAR

Date: 18/06/2013

Various circulars and office orders had been issued in past from Corporate Office i.r.o banking of collection amounts in cash by Customer Care Centers (CCCs) and remittance of cheques and drafts to the Division Office in timely manner. But it has been observed that cash as well as cheques and drafts are not being deposited to the dedicated collection account on timely and regular basis which results in blockage of fund for the company and in turn it increases the cost of debt capital to the company.

It has been observed that cash collected at our CCCs are not being deposited on the same day to the dedicated Bank Accounts. So, it is being instructed to deposit the cash collected at CCCs on daily basis to the dedicated Bank Accounts.

On the other hand, it has been reported that in many cases cheques and drafts sent by CCCs to the Divisions are also not being deposited to the dedicated Collection Account on timely basis. Cheques and Drafts collected at CCCs should be sent to the Divisional Office within the next day and cheques and drafts sent by CCCs to the Divisions must be deposited to the Collection Account within the next working day.

Following instructions to be followed by CCCs while remitting cheques and drafts to the Divisional office: -

- i. Along with Daily Collection Report, a system generated report is also required to be sent to the Divisions in the following format

Sl. No.	Date	Name of CCC	Consumer No.	Consumer Name	Cheque No.	Cheque Date	Name of Bank	Name of Branch	Amount (₹)

- ii. DDOs are also required to generate the same report from the concerned DCCs and cross check the detail sent by CCCs.

It is here by instructed that all the Controlling Officers and concerned DDOs of Divisions and Station Managers of the CCCs to monitor the timely deposition of cash as well as cheques and drafts to the dedicated collection account within the stipulated time as mentioned above.

A report is required to be submitted by the Divisional Managers in consultation with the Associated Finance on every fortnight basis to the Regional Managers covering following points: -

- i. Cash collected at all CCCs have been deposited to the dedicated Bank Accounts on daily basis.
- ii. All cheques and drafts collected have been sent to the Divisions within the next working day.

- iii. All cheques and drafts sent by CCCs to the Division had been deposited to the dedicated collection account within next working day of receiving from CCCs.

A similar report is to be sent by Regional Managers in consultation with the Associated Finance to the Zonal Manager on monthly basis covering all the Divisions under that Region.

Simultaneously, a report compiled by Zonal Managers in consultation with the Associated Finance on monthly basis covering all the Regions and Divisions need to be sent to the Chief Engineer (Distribution) with a copy to the General Manager (F&A), Corporate.

All concerned are required to strictly adhere to the above process and timely reporting. Concerned Officers will be held responsible for any deviation from the above mentioned guidelines.

This has concurrence of the Chairman and Managing Director, WBSEDCL.
