Office Order No. : 969

Dated : 19-06-2015

Sub : "Whistle Blowing Policy" of the Company

In terms of the provisions of 177 (9) and 177(10) of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 , the Board of Directors in its 57th meeting held on 2nd June, 2015 framed a "Whistle Blowing Policy" for the Company. The objective of the policy is to build and strengthen a culture of transparency and trust in the organization and to empower the employees of WBSedCL to raise their concerns about malpractice, impropriety, abuse or wrongdoing at an early stage and in the right way, without fear of victimization, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. The Policy also contains specific provisions and adequate safeguard for protection of genuine complains from victimization for whistle blowing in good faith.

However, the Company will view very seriously any false and malicious allegations which are made under this policy and will regard such allegations by any employee of the Company as a serious disciplinary offence.

It is also impressed upon that anonymous/pseudonymous complains will not be entertained and will be summarily discarded.

It is decided that the Whistle Blowing Policy will be disclosed on the Company's website and in the Board's report regularly.

A copy of the Whistle Blowing Policy is enclosed as ready reference.

This order takes immediate effect.

Director (H.R.)

VIGIL MECHANISM/ WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

1. PREFACE

Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 mandates the following classes of companies to constitute a vigil mechanism –

- Every listed Company;
- Every other Company which accepts deposits from the public;
- Every Company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of ₹50 crore.

The Company in compliance with the above requirement has formulated this Whistle blower Policy (“the Policy”) in order to provide a framework for responsible and secure Whistle blowing/vigil mechanism.

The Company has framed and adopted West Bengal State Electricity Distribution Company Limited Employees Service Regulations which govern the conduct of management of employees of the Company. The Vigilance department of the Company is also empowered to initiate investigations on its own and act on complaints received from public/ employees, with regard to violations of Company’s rules and procedures and code of ethics in the conduct of the business.

Any actual or potential violation of the Company’s rules, regulations and policy governing the conduct of business is a matter of serious concern for the Company. The Company is therefore, committed to developing a culture where it is safe for employees to raise concerns about instances if any, where such rules, regulations and policy are not being followed or any fraud has been committed or business has been conducted in an unethical manner.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVES

10. INVESTIGATION:

1. Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review by the Competent Authority which establishes that;
 - i) The alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
 - ii) The allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or in cases where the allegation is not supported by specific information but it is felt that the concerned matter deserves investigation.
2. If the Competent Authority determines that an investigation is not warranted, reason(s) for such determination shall be recorded in writing.
3. If the Competent Authority is prima facie satisfied that the Protected Disclosure warrants investigation of the alleged improper activity, Competent Authority will direct appropriate investigating machinery of the Company to investigate the matter.
4. The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Competent Authority is by itself not to be construed as an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact- finding process.

5. The identity of a Subject and the Whistle Blower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
6. Subjects will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and will be given opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
7. Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the Competent Authority or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such cooperation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
8. Subjects have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.
9. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
10. Subjects have right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation.
11. The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the date of receipt of the protected disclosure or such extended period as the Competent Authority may permit for reason to be recorded.

11. ROLE OF INVESTIGATORS:

1. Investigators are required to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority from Audit Committee /Competent Authority when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.
2. All Investigators shall perform their role in an independent and unbiased manner. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior and observance of professional standards.

12. ACTION:

1. If the Competent Authority is of the opinion that the investigation discloses the existence of improper activity which warrants disciplinary action against the subject, the Competent Authority shall report the matter to the concerned Disciplinary Authority for appropriate disciplinary action.

2. The Competent Authority shall take such other remedial action as deemed fit to remedy the improper activity mentioned in the protected disclosure or to prevent the re-occurrence of such improper activity.
3. If the Competent Authority is of opinion that the investigation discloses that no further action on the protected disclosure is warranted, he shall so record in writing. Recording should be incorporated in the Annual Report to be submitted to Audit Committee as mentioned in sub-para 1 of para 13 (Reporting & Review).
4. The decision of the Audit Committee should be considered as final and no challenge against the decision would be entertained, unless additional information becomes available.

13. REPORTING AND REVIEW:

1. The Competent Authority shall submit an annual report of the protected disclosures, received, of the investigation conducted, and of the action taken to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.
2. The Audit Committee shall have power to review any action or decision taken by the Competent Authority.

14. FALSE REPORTS

If a Whistle blower makes a false report maliciously, with an ulterior motive, or for personal gain, the Company reserves the right to take appropriate actions against him/her to recover any loss or damage as a result of the false report.

15. ROLE OF INVESTIGATOR

- a. A structured approach should be followed to ascertain the credibility of the charge.
- b. Ensure that the confidentiality and secrecy of the issue reported and subject is maintained.
- c. Provide timely update to the Competent Authority on the progress of the investigation.
- d. Ensure investigation is carried out in an independent and unbiased manner.
- e. Document the entire approach of the investigation.

- f. Investigation Report including the approach of investigation should be submitted to the Competent Authority with all the documents in support of the observation

16. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS
