Office Order No. 2137

Dated: 26-04-2022

Sub: Consideration of Training period as reckonable service under regular establishment

The Company (including the period of erstwhile WBSEB) has recruited manpower at different times with various terms & conditions of employment, particularly, so far as the period of probation and training period are concerned. It was a growing demand from the stakeholders and those employees who had joined this organisation as "Trainee" in regular establishment to consider the "Training Period" of the employees as a part of reckonable service under the regular establishment for the purpose of promotion & other service benefits.

The management of the Company was contemplating from quite some time past to consider the issue in its entirety and to settle the issue once for all. Accordingly, a committee was constituted to recommend suitably. On the basis of the recommendation of the committee a proposal in this regard was placed to the Board of Directors for consideration.

Now, after detailed deliberation and considering several aspects in this regard, it has been decided to consider the training period of the employees in the different cadres inducted in the regular post of the Company at different times (including the period of service rendered under erstwhile WBSEB) as mentioned herein below:

The period of on job training at different units/offices of erstwhile WBSEB/WBSEDCL, spent by employees (presently serving under the company) in different cadre posts, who had joined as "Trainee" and were subsequently absorbed against regular posts & in the regular establishment as well, is, hereby, considered as reckonable service under the regular establishment of the Company (including the period of erstwhile WBSEB) for all purposes including increment, promotion, terminal benefits etc. However, the financial benefits for the purpose will be considered notionally and the cases will be settled accordingly without any arrear payment subject to the following conditions:-

- I. The pay shall notionally be re-fixed w.e.f. the date of joining as 'Trainee'
- II. Seniority for consideration of other service benefit can be fixed on the basis of Panel Seniority
- III. For the purpose of notional re-fixation of pay for promotion under CPS taking into consideration of the date of joining as 'Trainee'

However, where successful completion of Training period and/or course thereof, is necessary to fulfill the eligibility criteria for appointment in a particular post as per the Recruitment Policy, 2010 (and subsequent amendments thereof) of the Company, the said Training period will not be considered for the purpose of counting as reckonable service under regular establishment for all purposes as mentioned above.

Reckoning of such training period under regular establishment shall be included under 'Clause-s' under 'Conditions of Promotion' of the Promotion Policy, 2010 and will be applicable for all future cases. Promotion Policy, 2010 is modified to the above extent only.

This Order is issued in terms of Resolution No. 12 adopted in the 104th Meeting of the Board of Directors held on 16.03.2022 and takes immediate effect.
