Office Order No.5882

Date: 25 April 2001

In pursuance of Memo No.433 (2)-Power/IV/2E-48/98 dated 30 April 1999, Memo No.208 (3)-Power/IV dated 16 March 2001 and Memo No. 238(3)-Power/IV dated 23 March 2001, it has been decided by the Board to implement a new "Assured Promotion Scheme" for the employees of WBSEB as per the guidelines given hereunder:

1. The new scheme shall be named as " Assured Promotion Scheme" or "APS " in brief.

The scheme shall come into force w.e.f. date of issuance of this Order.

The procedure to be followed for assessment of suitability of incumbents for promotion under "APS" Scheme has been laid down in Annexure-I to this Order.

4. No employee shall move beyond revised scale No.19 under APS.

Every Board employee first appointed on a regular basis to any of the posts in revised scale No.1 to 11 or to its unrevised analogue shall be allowed to move to the basic scale attached to the first promotional post as applicable to him on completion of eight years of continuous and satisfactory service in the post to which he was first appointed and, to move to the basic scale of the second promotional post as applicable to him on completion of further eight years of continuous and satisfactory service in the scale of pay of the first promotional post and, to move to the basic scale of third promotional post as applicable to him on completion of continuous and satisfactory service of yet another nine years in the scale of pay of the second promotional post. The structure of scales at all levels under "Assured Promotion Scheme" has been elaborated in Annexure - II to this Order.

5.2 Every Board employee first appointed on a regular basis to any of the posts in revised scale No. 15 or to its unrevised analogue shall be allowed to move to the basic scale attached to the first promotional post as applicable to him on completion of eight years of continuous and satisfactory service in the post to which he was first appointed and, to move to the basic scale of the second promotional post as applicable to him on completion of further eight years of continuous and satisfactory service in the scale of pay of the first promotional post. The structure of scales at all levels under "Assured Promotion Scheme" has been elaborated in Annexure - II to this Order.

5.3 A Board employee who has been holding a higher scale of pay attached to the next promotional post applicable to him and has been given the designation of the higher post with a suffix 'A', under existing Career Advancement Scheme, shall be formally promoted to the said higher post with effect from date of issuance of this Order without undergoing any formalities.

5.4 A Board employee who has already moved to the first or second promotional post as applicable to him either on getting normal promotion prior to issuance of this Order or promotion given in terms of paragraph 5.3 of this Order, shall be deemed to have got the first A.P.S. or second A.P.S. respectively. He shall be entitled to move to the next promotional post on completion of continuous and satisfactory service of sixteen years or twenty five years respectively reckoned from the date of first entry in Board's regular service, as well as three years of continuous and satisfactory service in the first promotional post or the second promotional post, as the case may be, reckoned from the date of promotion to such a post, both conditions being fulfilled. However, an employee first appointed to any of the posts in revised scale No. 15 or to its unrevised analogue shall not be entitled to move to the third promotional post under this scheme.

5.5 The employees who have got their first or second promotion either in the normal course or under this Assured Promotion Scheme, and are due for superannuation during the prescribed period of three years of continuous and satisfactory service in the first promotional post or second promotional post, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the promotion under APS on the first day of the last month of their scheduled retirement, in relaxation to provisions of guideline 5.4. No claim of step-up of pay with reference to such an employee shall be entertained under any circumstances.

6. In respect of employees whose induction level posts have been restructured in terms of ROPA'99, the length of qualifying service for the purpose of promotion under APS shall be counted from the date of their entry in Board's regular service in the pre-restructured scales of pay and the present restructured induction level scale shall be deemed to be their first induction level scale of pay.

7. A Board employee who has been appointed to a higher post by competing with outside candidates in response to an open advertisement shall be deemed to have been appointed afresh for the first time for the purpose of grant of APS

- 8.1 The existing schemes of Sr. Scale and CAS shall stand abolished from the date of issuance of this Order.

- 8.2 However, the employees drawing pay in a Senior Scale as on the date of effect of APS shall continue to draw pay in the Senior Scale as personal to them till the date they vacate such Senior Scale for any reason whatsoever. The employees who were due to get the Senior Scale award from a date prior to the date of effect of APS, but administrative orders granting such Senior Scale could not be issued, shall be granted the Senior Scale from the date that it was due and shall continue to draw pay in such Sr. Scale as personal to them till they vacate such Senior Scale for any reason whatsoever.

8.3 Notwithstanding the provisions contained in guideline 8.1, the employee who are not covered under this APS, but are due to be entitled to the senior scale, if any, attached to their existing posts, shall be granted pay in the senior scale of pay from the date it becomes due. Drawal of pay in the senior scale shall be personal to them till they vacate such senior scale for any reason whatsoever.

9. Fixation of pay on award of APS shall be made as per following rules :

1. In case where an employee holding a post is promoted to a higher post under APS after assessment of his suitability for promotion, the initial pay of such an employee in the higher scale of pay shall be fixed on the date of award of APS at the stage next above the pay notionally arrived at by increasing his pay in respect of the lower post by one increment at the stage at which such pay is accrued. The date of next increment shall fall due on the same date on which it would have accrued in the lower scale of pay.

In case where an employee has been, immediately before his promotion or appointment to a higher post, drawing pay at the maximum of the scale of pay of the lower post, with or without stagnation relief, the initial pay of such an employee in the scale of pay of the higher post shall be fixed on the date of joining that post at the stage next above the pay notionally arrived at by increasing his pay in respect of the lower post by an amount equal to the last increment in the scale of pay of the lower post provided that where such an employee belongs to Class-I post, the initial pay in the higher post shall be fixed on the date of joining that post at the stage next above the pay drawn in respect of the lower post.

In cases where an employee is promoted to a post in terms of guideline 5.3, the pay of such an employee shall be fixed in the same scale at the next higher stage with effect from the date the promotion takes place, provided that an employee may at his option to be exercised within 30 days from the date of issuance of order of promotion, may get his pay fixed in the above manner after getting his next annual increment and during the interim period, from the date of issuance of order of promotion to the date his pay is fixed, he shall continue to draw his existing pay.

10. Consequent upon promotion under APS, to the first promotional post or second promotional post or third promotional post applicable in respect of an employee, the concerned employee shall also be given designation of the particular promotional post with effect from the date of promotion.
11. A Class-III non-technical employee belonging to a unicadre, on promotion under APS shall be allowed the designation of such second or third promotional posts as would be suitable to his job experience.
12. In respect of technical employees who are required to possess a particular qualification for discharging the duties of a particular technical post as per the provision contained in the I.E. Act, 1910 read with I.E. Rules, 1956 or any statutory act in force, the designation to the higher post (s) shall be allowed only to those who possess such technical qualification and those who do not possess such qualification shall only be given the higher scale (s) without any designation. In respect of such employees of these categories whose license remained lapsed for a certain period/periods of time, the lapsed period of license shall not be counted for the purpose of calculation of years of service for determining the eligibility for promotion under APS.

13. In supersession of Office Order No.5671 dated 8 January 1999 the elevation of induction level and in intermediate levels in respect of categories of streams and/or cadres stated in Rule 30 to 35 of ROPA Rules 1999 shall be given effect from 1 February 1999 in terms of Memo No. 221-Power/IV dated 19 March 2001.

Since in normal course an employee, whether technical or non-technical, inducted or promoted to any post in revised scale No.5 shall move to the first or second promotional post respectively, in scale No.9, the employees presently holding revised scale No. 7 or 8 shall first be elevated to revised scale No.9 and the revised scale No. 7 & 8 shall be deemed to have been deleted from the list of scales of pay as contained in Schedule-I to ROPA'1999 with effect from 1 February 1999.

The employees who were inducted in any post in revised scale No.5 or to its un-revised analogue and were promoted to a post in revised scale No. 7(or 8) and now elevated to revised scale No.9 shall be deemed to have got the benefit of 1st APS.

14. Medical Officers inducted in revised scale No. 15 or its un-revised analogue shall move to revised scale No. 17 under first APS and to revised scale No. 19 under second APS. The designation of Sr. Medical Officers on getting the second APS shall be Deputy Chief Medical officer. Since the post of Deputy Chief Medical Officer do not exist at present, for the purpose of granting promotion under APS required No. of posts of Deputy CMO shall be automatically created, keeping the composite cadre strength of Medical Officers, intact and unaltered.

In order to implement the APS for officers inducted as Public Relations Officer, the required No. of posts of Deputy CPRO, at 3rd level in Class-I, shall be created on similar lines. In addition to this, the post of Chief Relations Officer shall be upgraded to 4th level Class-I post from the a issuance of this Order.

15. Where in relations to a particular post in a cadre there is no further scope of promotion under the existing rules, the scales as per APS and entitlements shall be granted to the employees and policy and procedure to be followed for grant of designations shall be separately finalized and published.
16. With the introduction of Assured Promotion Scheme which is basically linked with length of qualifying service reckoned from the date of induction of the employees, there will be no further scope of award of promotion on panel seniority basis or by any other procedure up to the posts which are covered under APS. Henceforth, the first four posts or three posts, as the case may be, from the induction level shall form a composite cadre. Seniority in the composite cadre shall be strictly on the basis of seniority on the date of issuance of this Order.
17. Hierarchy in any establishment of the Board manned by the employees belonging to composite cadre shall be strictly on the basis of seniority on the date of issuance of this Order.
18. Vacancies created in the composite cadre due to promotion from composite cadre to posts beyond the composite cadre shall be filled up in the induction level of composite cadre only.
19. Promotion in posts carrying scales of pay beyond revised scale No.19 shall be made as per existing rules of the Board.
20. With the introduction of composite cadre and award of APS, cases may arise where senior employees may be entitled to less pay than their junior counterparts. Step-up of pay in such cases may be considered as per existing rules of step-up of pay.
