1. The employees who were promoted to the post of Special Operating Assistants Grade- B and Special Technical Assistants Grade-B before 01-04-2009 i.e. those redesignated as Senior Operating Assistants and Senior Technical Assistants w.e.f. 01-04-2009 but have not so far completed minimum eligibility period under CPS (formerly APS) at the level of Special Operating Assistants Grade- B and Special Technical Assistants Grade-B shall be eligible for appearing at the Written Elevation Test;
2. The Written Elevation Test (scheduled to be started from the year 2009 but deferred to 1st quarter of 2010) shall be held once in a year. The employees shall be allowed three successive opportunities (in three years) to qualify themselves in the Test.
3. The employees qualified in the first Written Elevation Test shall be empanelled on elevation to the post of Special Operating Assistant and Special Technical Assistant in the revised pay band of Rs.6,300-20,200/- (subject to minimum Band pay of Rs.9,000/-) with Grade Pay of Rs.4,400/- without any other fixation benefit with effect from 01-04-2009 and those qualified in the 2nd Written Elevation Test shall be elevated with effect from 01-04-2010 and those qualified in the 3rd Written Elevation Test shall be elevated with effect from 01-04-2011.
4. On elevation they shall continue to remain in their existing CPS (formerly APS) with designation as Special Operating/Technical Assistants and may proceed to promotions under CPS Scheme on completion of required length of service countable from the dates of their joining in their basic induction level posts, provided that they are found otherwise eligible to get further promotion under CPS.
5. The panel seniority of the elevated employees shall be determined on the basis of their respective seniority position in their pre-elevated posts as per up-to-date Gradation List published by PP Cell provided they qualify in the 1st Written Elevation Test. The elevation effect and panel seniority of those failing to qualify in the 1st test but successful in the subsequent tests shall be deferred for the purpose of their future promotion under CPS by 1 and 2 years, as the case may be.
6. The employees found unqualified and unelevated in all three tests shall continue to remain in their existing pay and designation in their existing level of CPS and may proceed to usual promotions under CPS Scheme on completion of required length of service countable from the dates of their joining in their basic induction level posts, provided that they are found otherwise eligible to get promotion under CPS.
7. The Standing Selection Committee, WBSEDCL shall conduct the first, second and third Written Elevation Tests, within March 2010, December 2010 and May 2011 respectively, and finally release panels accordingly of the qualified candidates.
8. The IR Cell shall issue orders on execution of the panels observing required formalities.
